

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position: Telecom Engineer
Location: RTE's HQ at Kabul

Job Responsibilities:

- Coordinate all engineering related tasks for installation, configuration, basic network connectivity and other hardware deployment.
- Provides support and expertise for Implementation of Telecom Networks..
- Troubleshoot deployment of WIMX & VAST devices.
- Deploy and troubleshoot all types of Telecom Devices/Network Elements.
- Implement communications architecture for all types of customers.
- Design communications diagrams based on customer requirements.
- Monitor all backbone links and network devices.
- Ensure continuous operation of servers and services.
- Provide quality support for customers and respond to customer requests on time.
- Open tickets to track and document resolution of problems for the voice and data networks.

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor degree or diploma in telecom with experience in IT field and networking devices.
- Ku and C band knowledge is preferred.
- Minimum of 2 years experience in configuration and deployment of networked systems.
- Excellent knowledge of Windows environments, software installation and directory structures.
- Should have excellent writing, reading and speaking skills in Pashto, Dari and English languages.
- Should have corporate level proficiency in MSWord, Excel, PowerPoint and official e-mailing/computer skills.
- Should have a presentable, courteous and pleasant personality.
- Should be hardworking, sincere, honest, dedicated, and self achiever.